Veerambudi Srinivasa Iyengar addika of the Adige mané was transferred from that place in the Sri Ranganathaswami temple to the Parapattyam Place at Ranghatta on a promotion of Rs 2 owing to his quarrelsomeness & breach of discipline. He has appealed against the Dy Comr's order of transfer on the ground that the appt is hereditary. The Dy Comr says that the Jasdik Patti revised in 1900 by the late Murrai Secretary shows that the addika Place which the Petr held before his transfer to Ranghatta is liable to be abolished on the death of the present incumbent & the Petr, which shows that the Place cannot be hereditary

Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No. 2326/Inam. 663-12-2 dated 4-6-1913 calling for a report on the appeal of Veerambudi Seshasesiengar Adikada Baramadar in the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple at Seringapatam against this office order directing his transfer to the parpattegar of the Sri Venkataramana Swami temple at Karighatta, I have the honor to state that several charges viz

(1) that on 11-7-1912 the petitioner did not properly look to the feeding of people in the Annanja Kuta in the temple (Vide Correspondence ending with yadi no: 20 dated 14-7-1912).

(2) Complaint of Sri. Shama Rao one of the Dharmadarsis, that the said Srinivasiengar failed to give satisfaction in the Conduct of ದೇವರ ಸೇವೆಯಲ್ಲಿ Sankarpane on 12-7-1912.

(3) That he behaved very rudely towards Mr. G.V. Narasimhiengar one of the Dharmadarsis, for having fed a traveller and that he was fined annas 4/- for this (Vide yadi no. 125/305 - dated 10-12-1912)

(4) Report of the late parupattegar Varahaswami Iyengar while he was acting as Peshkar that the petitioners behaviour was not satisfactory in as much as he was very insubordinate to him (Vide yadi v from Peshkar no: 361 dated 30-5-1906).

(5) Repot against the petitioners general conduct by the late peshkar Rangannah (Vide yadi yx no: 230 dated 18-5-1906).

(6) Complaint of the archak and paricharak and others that on 9-11-1912 the petitioner did not properly conduct the distribution of Deepavali [illegible], and

and that he has been doing the same very often.

(7). That on 13-1-1913 when the Sub division officer, French-Rock was inspecting the Taluk office at Seringapatam some 10 or 12 persons from Kalkeuta Agrahar who had been to the temple to take medals in the Ramanuja Koota. Came out in a body and Complained to the Sub division officer of the bad treatment given to them by the petitioner and that the Sub division officer sent the Taluk Sheristedar and one of the Sharasdars to sell the man being bed, were brought against him from time to time

The Amildar after all these instances transferred him to Karighatta on a promotion of Rs 2/- and appointed another man for the addika to see if matters would improve and the Sub division officer upheld the Amildar's views and remarked that the petitioners are a very quarrelsome.

Veeranbushi Sriniwasiyan then appealed against the above order to this office and on perusing the records received with French-Rolls Divn officer's yadi no: 21, of the 20-2-1913 Mr. K. Chandy the then Deputy Commissioner observed that it was no punishment to promote a man for quarrelsomeness he should be first punished and then removed from office if he were still recalcitrant.

Thereupon the Sub Divn officer reported that the transfer to Karighatta was substantially a punishment - in spite of an apparent increment of pay. Though under the circumstan circumstances he was not entitled to such kind treatment, yet to give him a chance for improvement, I approved of the transfer.
